1. Policy statement

1.1 Merthyr Tydfil Housing Association (MTHA) is committed to dealing effectively with any concerns or complaints you may have about our service. We aim to clarify any issues about which you are not sure. If possible, we will put right any mistakes we may have made. We will provide any service you are entitled to which we have failed to deliver. If we have got something wrong, we will apologise and aim to put things right. We also aim to learn from our mistakes and use the information we gain to improve our services.

2. Purpose

2.1 To outline the principles we have adopted in responding to and managing any complaints and concerns that are raised by our tenants, residents, or service users.

3. Scope

3.1 This policy applies to any member of the public, including a young person or child, who has received, or was entitled to receive a service from MTHA, or somebody acting on their behalf.

4. Responsibilities

4.1 The Director of Operations oversees the delivery of our complaints policy. The Governance Manager has day-to-day responsibility for the management of the process.

5. What is a complaint?

A complaint is:	A complaint is not:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An expression of dissatisfaction or concern. • Either written (letter, email) or spoken (phone call) or made by any other communication method (including social media). A complaints form is available on our website. • Made by one or more members of the public. • About something MTHA has done, or something that we haven't done. • About the standard of service provided. • Is something which requires a response. • About MTHA itself, a person acting on our behalf, or a partnership we are involved with. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The first time you have asked for something. For example, reporting a leak or other repair. • An appeal against a 'properly made' decision. (For example, we have followed our recharge policy and sent you a recharge that you disagree with). • A means to seek change to legislation or a 'properly made' policy decision. (For example, our rent policy). • A means for lobbying groups / organisations to seek to promote a cause. (For example, a group not wanting us build new homes in an area)

6. When to use this policy?

- 6.1 You should use this policy when you feel that we have failed to deliver on a service. It does not apply if the matter is to do with data protection. In that instance, please contact our Data Protection Officer who is our Director of Corporate Services on 01685 352800. Alternatively, you can email mtha@mtha.org.uk
- 6.2 If you are approaching us for a service for the first time (e.g. reporting a faulty tap, requesting an appointment etc), this policy does not apply. You should give us a chance to respond to your request. If you make a request but are not happy with our response, you can use this policy.
- 6.3 If you are appealing a decision based on a policy or procedure which has a separate right of appeal, you will need to use that.
- 6.4 If you are complaining about Anti-Social Behaviour, please contact our Anti-Social Behaviour Officers who are based within our Housing Team on 01685 352800 and press option 3. Alternatively, you can email mtha@mtha.org.uk
- 6.5 If the issue(s) you are complaining about is already in court or has been heard by a court or tribunal, you cannot use this policy.
- 6.6 If your complaint has already been concluded and you have exhausted all the stages of our complaint process you will need to contact the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales (for contact details see paragraph 9).
- 6.7 If your complaint is about an organisation or contractor working on our behalf you may wish to raise the issue with them first. However, if you wish to complain formally, we will look into this ourselves and respond to you.

7. How we deal with your complaints

7.1 Informally

If possible, we believe it is best to deal with things straight away rather than try to sort them out later. If you have a concern, raise it with the person you are dealing with. Staff will try to resolve the problem quickly in an informal way and should resolve the complaint within five working days. If the member of staff cannot help, they will explain why, and you can then ask for a formal investigation.

7.2 How to express your concern or complain formally

7.2.1 You can tell us about your issue in any of the following ways:

- Contact our Complaints Officer on 01685 352831
- Send an email to complaints@mtha.org.uk
- Use the complaints form attached at Appendix 2 or on our website at www.mtha.org.uk
- Ask for a copy of our complaints form from any member of staff
- Write to the Complaints Officer at the following address:
MTHA, 11-12 Lower High Street, Merthyr Tydfil, CF47 8EB

Copies of this policy and our complaints form are available in Welsh, Polish and Portuguese.

7.2.2 Normally, we will only be able to look at your concerns if you tell them about them within six months. If it is more than six months since you first became aware of the problem, please give the reason why you have not complained before now. We will only be able to look at a complaint which is more than six months ago, if you can provide strong reasons for the delay in contacting us.

7.3 Formal Complaints

7.3.1 We will formally acknowledge your concern within 2 working days of receipt. We will deal with your complaint in an open and honest way, and we will make sure that your dealings with us in the future do not suffer just because you have expressed a concern or made a complaint.

7.3.2 We will advise you who has been asked to investigate your complaint. If it is straightforward, the relevant Service Manager will investigate it and respond. If it is more serious, we will ask the relevant Director to investigate. Where the complaint concerns a Director, it will initially be dealt with by the Chief Executive and if it concerns the Chief Executive, it will be dealt with by the Chair of the Board.

7.3.3 The person investigating your complaint will aim first to establish the facts. The extent of the investigation will depend on the seriousness and complexity of the issues raised. In some instances, we may ask to meet with you to discuss your concerns. They will look at the relevant evidence. This could include file notes; letters, e-mails; telephone logs; talking to staff and looking at policies. We may ask you to provide copies of e-mails or telephone logs in exceptional circumstances.

7.3.4 If there is a simple solution to your complaint, we may ask you if you are happy to accept this. For example, where you have asked for a service, and we see straight away that you should have had it; we will offer to provide the service rather than investigate.

7.3.5 We aim to resolve complaints as quickly as possible and will provide a full explanation and response with 10 working days of receipt. If the complaint is more complex or serious, it may take longer to investigate. If this is the case, we will let you know why it is taking longer to investigate and how long it will take. We will give you regular updates on progress.

7.4 Our process is shown graphically in Appendix 1.

8. Outcome

8.1 If we formally investigate your complaint, we will let you know what we have found in keeping with your preferred method of communication. This could be by letter or by email for example. If we find we got it wrong, we will tell you and explain why it happened.

8.2 If we find there is a fault in our systems or the way we do things, we will tell you what it is and how we plan to change things to stop it happening again.

8.3 If we did not provide a service you should have received, we will aim to provide it now if that is possible. If we did not do something well, we will aim to put it right. If you have lost out as a result of a mistake we have made we will try and put you back in the position you would have been if we had got it right. If you had to pay for a service yourself, when you should have had one from us, we will usually aim to make good what you have lost.

8.4 If we get it wrong, we will always apologise.

9. Ombudsman

9.1 If we do not succeed in resolving your complaint, you may complain to the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales. The Ombudsman is independent of all government bodies and can look into your complaint if you believe that you personally, or the person on whose behalf you are complaining:

- Have been treated unfairly or received a bad service through some failure on the part of MTHA
- Have been disadvantaged personally by a service failure or have been treated unfairly

9.2 The Ombudsman expects concerns to be brought to our attention first to give us a chance to put things right. The Ombudsman can be contacted by:

Phone: 0300 790 0203

E-mail: ask@ombudsman.wales

Website: www.ombudsman.wales

9.3 There are other organisations that consider complaints, for example the Welsh Language Commissioner about services in Welsh. We can advise you about such organisations.

10. What if help is needed?

10.1 We will help you make your complaint known. If you need extra assistance, we will try and put you in touch with someone who can help. You may wish to contact Shelter or Citizens Advice who may be able to assist you.

10.2 You can also use this policy if you are under the age of 18. If you need help, you can speak to someone on the Meic Helpline (phone: 080880 23456; text: 84001 www.meiccymru.org). Alternatively, you can contact the Children's Commissioner for Wales:

Phone: 01792 765600

Email: post@childcomwales.org.uk

Write to: Children's Commissioner for Wales

Llewellyn House, Harbourside Business Park, Harbourside Road, Port Talbot, SA13 1SB

10.3 This policy will be followed whether you contact us directly to make a complaint or ask someone else to complain on your behalf.

11. What we expect from you

11.1 We believe that all complainants have the right to be heard, understood and respected and our staff have the same rights. We, therefore, expect you to be polite and courteous. We will not tolerate aggressive or abusive behaviour, unreasonable demands or unreasonable persistence.

11.2 It is recognised that complainants may act out of character in times of trouble and distress. We do not view behaviour as unacceptable just because a complainant is forceful or determined.

11.3 We have a Policy on Dealing with Unreasonable Behaviour or Actions and the actions of complainants who are aggressive, demanding or persistent may result in the use of this Policy.
